

GLOUCESTERSHIRE RECORD SERIES
VOLUME 35

THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE COURT OF SEWERS
1583–1642

Edited by Rose Hewlett

The Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society

Courts of Sewers records are about:

- People (from all layers of society)
- Places (including fields and farmsteads)
- Local government

- Land drainage and sea defences
- Topographical features

- Local history
- Family history
- Social and cultural history

- Political history
- Economic history
- Environmental history

- Landscape archaeology
- Industrial archaeology

Details of this new book are available at <http://www.bgas.org.uk/index.html>.

Contact gloucestershirehousehistories@gmail.com for a copy.

Rose Hewlett, University of Bristol